PROPOSED ORGANIC LAW

entitled

Organic Law on the Independent Commission Against Corruption 2019,

Being an Organic Law to implement Division V111.3 of the Constitution (The Independent Commission Against Corruption) and for related purposes,

MADE by the National Parliament to come into operation in accordance with a notice in the National Gazette by the Head of State, acting with, and in accordance with, the advice of the National Executive Council.

PART I.—PRELrminARY.

1 COMPLIANCE WITH CONSTITUTIONAL REQUIREMENTS.

This Organic Law, to the extent that it regulates or restricts a right or freedom referred to in Subdivision 1II.3.0
(Qualified Rights) of the Constitution, namely –
(a) liberty of the person conferred by Section 42; and
(b) freedom from arbitrary search of person or property and entry of premises, conferred by Section 44; and
(c) freedom of conscience, thought and religion conferred by Section 45; and

and
(i) the right to freedom of movement conferred by Section 52; and
(f) the protection from unjust deprivation of property conferred by Section 53,
of the Constitution is a law that is made pursuant to Section 38 of the Constitution that is necessary for the purpose of giving effect to the public interest in public safety, public order and public welfare and is reasonably justifiable in a democratic society having a proper respect and regard for the rights and dignity of mankind, taking into account the National Goals and Directive Principles and Basic Social Obligations, because of the risk that corruption poses to public safety, public order and or both.

Division 2. – Assessments of complaints etc.

50. ASSESSMENT OF COMPLAINTS ETC.

(1) After receiving a complaint about alleged or suspected corrupt conduct, the Commission must assess the complaint.

(2) In assessing the complaint, the Commission may have regard to whether the complaint –

- (a) raises a potential matter of corrupt conduct; or
- (b) raises a matter of serious corrupt conduct or systemic corrupt conduct; or
- (c) raises any matter of public interest; or
- (d) appears to lack credibility or substance; or
- (e) is trivial, vexatious or frivolous; or
- (f) raises a matter that occurred too long ago to justify an investigation; or
- (g) raises a matter that is more appropriately dealt with by another agency or body; or
- (h) raises a matter that has previously been dealt with by another agency or body and there is no reason to re-examine it, or there is other good reason why no action should be taken in respect of the matter.

(3) The Commission must assess a matter involving alleged or suspected corrupt conduct if –

- (a) the matter is reported or referred to the Commission by another agency or body; or
- (b) the Commission is aware of the matter acting on its own initiative.

51. ACTION THAT THE COMMISSION MAY TAKE.

(1) After making an assessment of a matter under Section 50, the Commission may –

- (a) investigate all or part of the matter; or
- (b) decide to take no further action in relation to all or part of the matter; or
- (c) refer all or part of the matter to another body or agency.

(2) The Commission may, at any time, reconsider how a matter must be dealt with.

(3) Without limiting Subsection (2), the Commission –
(a) may discontinue an investigation; or
(b) having decided not to investigate a matter, may decide to investigate the matter; or
(c) may decide to refer a matter to another agency or body, before, during or after an investigation.

(4) The Commission may inform a complainant or an agency or body that has reported or referred a matter to the Commission, as to the action taken under this section in respect of the matter.

52. PUBLIC STATEMENTS.

The Commission may, subject to other laws, make or publish a public statement about a complaint or investigation concerning alleged or suspected corrupt conduct if, in the Commission's opinion, it is appropriate to do so in the public interest, having regard to the following:

- (a) the benefits to an investigation that might be derived from making the statement;
- (b) the risk of prejudicing the reputation or safety of a person by making the statement;
- (c) whether the statement is necessary in order to allay public concern or to prevent or minimise the risk of prejudice to the reputation of a person;
- (c1) if an allegation against a person has been made public and, in the opinion of the Commission, the person is not implicated in corrupt conduct – whether the statement would redress prejudice caused to the reputation of the person as a result of the allegation having been made public;
- (e) the risk of adversely affecting a potential prosecution of a criminal offence or a disciplinary proceeding.

Division 3. – Investigations into Corrupt Conduct.

53. INVESTIGATIONS GENERALLY.

(1) The Commission may conduct an investigation into alleged or suspected corrupt conduct –

- (a) on its own initiative; or
- (b) in response to a complaint made; or
- (c) in response to a report or reference made to it by another body or agency.

(2) The Commission may conduct an investigation even if no public official or public body is implicated.

54. POWER TO REQUIRE STATEMENT OF INFORMATION

(1) For the purposes of an investigation, the Commission may, by notice in writing, require a public body or a public official to produce a statement of information.

(2) The notice –

- (a) must be signed by a member of the Commission; and
 - (b) must specify or describe the information required; and

(1) If a document or thing is produced in accordance with a notice under Section 58, the Commission –

(a) may take possession of, and may make copies of the document or thing, or take extracts from a document; and

(h) may retain possession of the document or thing for the period necessary for the purposes of the investigation to which the document or thing relates.

(2) While retaining the document or thing, the Commission must allow a person who would otherwise be entitled to inspect the document or view the thing to do so at the times that the person would ordinarily be able to do so.

(3) If the retention of the document or thing by the Commission is not, or ceases to be, reasonably necessary for the purposes of the investigation or a prosecution to which the document or thing relates, the Commission must deliver the document or thing to the person who appears to the Commission to be entitled to possession of the document or thing.

(4) The Commission must make a record of all documents or things produced and retained.

PART V.— EMARLNGS.

Division 1. — General provisions for hearings

63. HEARINGS.

The Commission may hold a hearing for the purposes of an investigation.

The hearing must be held before at least one member of the Commission.

The Commission may decide to hold the whole or a part of the hearing either in public or in private.

In making, a decision under Subsection (3), the Commission may have regard to the following:

(a) the benefit of exposing the public to, and making the public aware of corrupt conduct;

(b) the seriousness of the corrupt conduct being investigated;

(c) whether the evidence that may be given, or a matter that may arise, during the hearing is likely to be of a confidential nature or relates to the commission, or to the alleged or suspected commission, of an offence;

(d) the risk of any unfair prejudice to a person's reputation that is likely to be caused if the hearing takes place in public;

(e) whether the public interest in holding the hearing in public is outweighed by the public interest in preserving the privacy of the person concerned;

(1) whether a public hearing would prejudice any of the following matters:

(i) defence;

(ii) public safety;

(iii) public order;

(iv) public welfare;

(v) the investigation into or the prosecution of corrupt conduct.

(5) The Commission must make a written record of a hearing.

64. LEGAL REPRESENTATION AT A HEARLNG.

(1) A person giving evidence at a hearing may be represented by a legal practitioner.

(2) The Commission may appoint a Commission prosecutor or another legal practitioner to assist the Commission during a hearing,

(3) The Commission prosecutor or legal practitioner may attend the hearing to assist the Commission.

65. RULES OF EVIDENCE DO NOT APPLY.

(1) The Commission is not bound by the rules of evidence at a hearing and may inform itself as the Commission considers appropriate.

(2) The Commission must conduct a hearing with as little formality and technicality as the Commission considers appropriate.

66. EXAMINATION AND CROSS EXAMINATION.

At a hearing, the following persons may, if the Commission thinks it appropriate, examine or cross examine any witness on any matter that the Commission considers relevant:

- (a) a Commission prosecutor or other legal practitioner assisting the Commission at the hearing; or
- (b) a person summoned to attend the hearing; or
- (c) a legal practitioner representing a person at the hearing.

67. POWER TO EXAMINE ON OATH.

(1) The Commission may take evidence on oath or affirmation at a hearing.

(2) For the purposes of Subsection (1), the member of the Commission presiding at the hearing –

- (a) may require a person attending the hearing to give evidence either to take an oath or make an affirmation; and
- (b) may administer the oath or affirmation.

Division 2. – Summons to attend hearing.

68. COMMISSION MAY SUMMON PERSON.

(1) The Commission may summon a person to attend a hearing to do any of the following:

- (a) give evidence;

- (b) produce a document or thing;
- (a) give evidence and produce a document or thing.

- (2) The summons must –
 - (a) be signed by a member of the Commission; and
 - (b) set out the general nature of the corrupt conduct the subject of the hearing; and
 - (a) in the case of a summons to produce the document or thing; and
 - (d) specify the time and date of the hearing; and
 - (e) be served on the person required to attend the hearing.
- (3) Notwithstanding any other Act, a person served with a summons must comply with it.
- (4) A person summoned to give evidence at a hearing is entitled to be paid the same fees, allowances and expenses as a witness in legal proceedings before the National Court.

69. ON-GOING REQUIREMENT FOR WITNESS TO ATTEND.

(1) A person who is summoned to attend a hearing to give evidence must attend and report to the Commission from day to day unless the person is excused from attending or released from further attendance by the member of the Commission presiding at the hearing.

(2) The Commission may, by notice in writing, excuse a person who has been summoned to attend a hearing to produce documents or other things from the required attendance on the condition that the person or a person acting on the person's behalf produces the document or thing in accordance with any directions given by the Commission before the hearing.

70. SELF-INCRIMINATION ETC.

(1) A person who is summoned to produce a document or thing at a hearing, is not excused from producing the document or thing on the basis that doing so incriminates the person.

(2) A person who is a witness at a hearing is not excused from answering a question at the hearing, whether or not the person is summoned to give evidence, on the basis that doing so incriminates the person or exposes the person to a penalty.

(3) Evidence given, at a hearing (including a document or thing produced) –

- (a) is not admissible in evidence against the person in any civil or criminal proceeding; and
- (b) is admissible at the hearing.

- (b) the Prime Minister certifies that to do so is likely to prejudice Papua New Guinea's relation with the Government of any other country or with any international organisation; or
- (c) to do so would involve the disclosure of proceedings, deliberations or decisions of the National Executive Council, or of any committee of that Council, which the Prime Minister certifies relate to matters of a secret or confidential nature, disclosure of which would be injurious to the public interest; or
- (d) to do so would be a breach of Parliamentary privilege or immunity; or
- (e) the answer is subject to a claim of legal professional privilege.

72. DISCLOSURE OF SUMMONS MAY BE PROHIBITED.

- (1) The section applies if –
 (a) a summons is served on a person to attend a hearing;
and
 (b) the hearing is to be held in private.
- (2) The Commission may include a notation in the summons to the effect that disclosure of the existence of the summons or any information about the summons is prohibited except in the circumstances specified in the notation if the Commission is satisfied that a failure to include a notation is likely to prejudice –
 (a) a person's safety; or
 (b) the fair trial of a person who is charged with an offence; or
 (c) the investigation to which the summons relates or an investigation into other corrupt conduct;
 or
 (d) any action taken as a result of an investigation.
- If a notation is included in the summons, it must be accompanied by a written statement setting out the rights and obligations conferred or imposed on the person on whom the summons is served.
- A notation included in the summons is cancelled if –
 (a) the Commission concludes the investigation to which the summons relates; and
 (b) a criminal proceeding or disciplinary proceeding resulting from the investigation is concluded.
- A person commits an offence if – may be made by fax, email or such other means of communication approved by the District Court.

- (4) The application may be heard –
 - (a) ex parte; and
 - (b) in closed court or in chambers.

87. CONSIDERATION OF APPLICATION FOR INTERCEPTION WARRANT.

in deciding whether to issue an interception warrant, the District Court may, having regard to the intrusive nature of using an interception device, consider the following, amongst other matters:

- (a) whether the corrupt conduct being investigated is serious corrupt conduct or systemic corrupt conduct;
- (b) if the warrant is issued, the extent to which the privacy of the person is likely to be affected;
- (a) the extent to which issuing the warrant would help prevent, detect, or provide evidence of the commission of corrupt conduct;
- (d) the benefits derived from the issue of any previous interception warrants in relation to corrupt conduct;
- (e) the extent to which a Commission investigator has used alternative means of investigation;
- (f) the existence of any alternative means of investigation and the extent to which those means may assist or prejudice the investigation.

88. ISSUE OF INTERCEPTION WARRANT.

(I) The District Court may issue an interception warrant if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that –

- (a) the use of an interception device by the Commission is likely to assist the Commission in an investigation; and
- (b) other methods of investigation have failed or are unlikely to succeed because of the circumstances of the particular case.

(2) The Court may impose any conditions on the interception warrant that the Court considers necessary in the public interest.

- (3) The interception warrant may be issued in respect of –
 - (a) more than one kind of interception device; and
 - (b) more than one interception device of any particular kind.

(4) Subject to Section 93(1), the interception warrant remains in force until the end of the period of validity specified in the warrant, including any extension of the warrant under Section 92.

89. CONTENTS OF AN INTERCEPTION WARRANT.

- (1) An interception warrant must state the following:

(a) who is authorised to execute the warrant; and
(b) the purpose for which the warrant is issued; and
(a) the name of any person, if known, to be placed under interception; and
(d) where applicable, the premises where the interception device authorised under the warrant may be used; and
(e) the number and kind of interception devices authorised to be used under the warrant; and
(I) where applicable, the object or class of object in relation to which the interception device authorised under the warrant may be used; and
(g) any conditions of the warrant imposed by the District Court; and
(h) the day and time the warrant starts and when the warrant ends.

(2) An interception warrant may be issued for a period not exceeding 90 days.

91. EXTENSION AND VARIATION OF INTERCEPTION WARRANT.

(I) At any time before the expiry of an interception warrant a Commission investigator may apply to the District Court for –

- (a) an extension of the warrant; or
- (b) a variation of any of the terms of the warrant.

(2) The application must be made to the District Court and must be accompanied by the original warrant.

(3) Section 86 applies, with any necessary changes, to an application under this section as if it were an application for an interception warrant.

92. DISTRICT COURT MAY GRANT APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OR VARIATION OF INTERCEPTION WARRANT.

(1) The District Court may grant the application –
(a) if it is satisfied that the circumstances in Section 88(1) (a) and (b) still exist; and
(b) after considering matters under Section 87.

(2) If the Court grants the application, it must, endorse the new expiry date and term on the original interception warrant.

(3) The interception warrant may be extended for a period not exceeding 90 days.

(4) An application may be made under this section more than once.

93. REVOCATION AND EXPIRY OF AN INTERCEPTION WARRANT.

(1) The District Court may revoke an interception warrant on its own initiative at any time before the expiry of the period of validity specified in the warrant.

(2) A Commission investigator must, as soon as practicable, take the necessary steps to ensure that the use of an interception device authorised by an interception warrant is discontinued if –
(a) the interception warrant expires; or
(b) the interception warrant is revoked by the District Court.

94. RESTRICTION ABOUT RECORDS AND ACCESS TO INTERCEPTION WARRANT APPLICATIONS ETC.

(1) In this section, "relevant proceeding" means an application to a District Court for an interception warrant or an extension of an interception warrant.

(2) Notwithstanding any other law, a person must not make a transcript of a relevant proceeding.

(3) Except by direction of the District Court, a person must not –

(a) make a record of a relevant proceeding or an interception warrant available to another person;

or

(b) publish or otherwise disclose a notice of a relevant proceeding or the existence of an interception warrant.

(4) A person commits an offence if the person contravenes Subsection (2) or Subsection (3).

Penalty: A fine not exceeding K10,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

(5) A person is not entitled to search for information that is in the custody of a Court in relation to a relevant proceeding or an interception warrant, unless the District Court otherwise orders in the interest of justice.

95. ADMISSIBILITY AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION OBTAINED USING INTERCEPTION WARRANT.

(1) This section applies to information that was obtained using an interception warrant.

(2) Subject to Subsection (3), the information is not admissible in evidence against a person in any civil or criminal proceedings.

(3) The information is admissible in the following:
(a) proceedings for an offence against this Law; or
(b) proceedings relating to serious corrupt conduct or systemic corrupt conduct; or
(c) proceedings under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2005.

(4) The information is admissible in a hearing of the Commission under this Law.

2019–continued

95. Admissibility and Disclosure of Information obtained using Interception Warrant–continued

(5) This section does not render inadmissible information that was obtained independently of the use of an interception warrant.

(6) A Commission officer who obtains information obtained using an interception device must not disclose the information to another person, except for the purposes of –

- (a) any proceedings mentioned in Subsection (3); or
- (h) an investigation; or
- (c) a hearing.

(7) A Commission officer who contravenes Subsection (6) commits an offence.

Penalty: A fine not exceeding K10,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

96. KEEPING OF RECORDS.

The Commission must keep all information obtained under an interception warrant and transcripts of recordings or photographs made or taken under the warrant in a secure place.

97. PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATIONS.

The Division does not render information obtained under an interception warrant to be admissible as evidence if that information is subject to a claim of privilege.

98. OBSTRUCTION OF PERSON EXECUTING AN INTERCEPTION WARRANT.

A person commits an offence if the person prevents, hinders or obstructs a person authorised to execute an interception warrant from executing the warrant.

Penalty: A fine not exceeding K10,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

PART VII.– ARRESTS AND PROSECUTIONS.

99. ARRESTS.

(1) This section applies to an indictable offence relating to "corrupt conduct".

(2) A Commission investigator has the same duties and powers under the Arrest Act 1977 in relation to an indictable offence as a police officer would have under that Act in relation to the indictable offence, other than the powers under Part II (Circumstances justifying arrest without warrant) of that Act.

(3) A Commission investigator also has the same duties and powers under the Arrest Act 1977 in relation to an indictable offence as a member of the public would have under that Act in relation to the indictable offence.

(4) A Commission investigator has the same duties and powers under the Bail Act 1977 in relation to an indictable offence as a police officer would have under that Act in relation to the offence, but the Commission is not a bail authority within the meaning of that Act.

(5) A Commission prosecutor has the same duties and powers under the District Courts Act 1963 in relation to an indictable offence as a police officer would have under that Act in relation to the indictable offence.

100. COMMENCEMENT AND CONDUCT OF COMMITTAL PROCEEDINGS FOR CERTAIN OFFENCES.

The Commission may commence committal proceedings for indictable offences relating to corrupt conduct.

101. OBTAINING CONSENT OF PUBLIC PROSECUTOR TO PROSECUTE CERTAIN OFFENCES.

(1) The Commission prosecutor may prosecute the trial of an indictable offence relating to corrupt conduct with the written consent of the Public Prosecutor and in accordance with law.

(2) The Commission may request the consent of the Public Prosecutor to prosecute –
(a) a particular indictable offence relating to corrupt conduct; or
(b) a class of indictable offences relating to corrupt conduct.

(3) The request for consent must be in writing.

(4) The Public Prosecutor must, within 60 days after receiving the Commission's request, notify the Commission in writing of his or her decision to consent to the prosecution or refuse consent.

National Gazette

Organic Law on the Independent Commission Against
Corruption 2019—continued

101. Obtaining Consent of Public Prosecutor to Prosecute Certain Offences—continued

(5) If the Public Prosecutor refuses to consent to the prosecution, the Public Prosecutor must include in the notice under Subsection (I) the reasons for the refusal, indicating whether the Public Prosecutor –

(a) considers that there is no reasonable prospect of a conviction; or

(b) considers that the prosecution is not in the public interest; or

(c) intends to conduct the prosecution.

(6) If within 60 days after receiving the Commission's request to prosecute an indictable offence relating to corrupt conduct, the Public Prosecutor has not responded in writing to the request, the Public Prosecutor is deemed to have consented to the prosecution by the Commission.

102. APPEALS AND OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

(1) If the Public Prosecutor consents or is deemed to have consented to the prosecution of the trial of an indictable offence relating to corrupt conduct, the Commission may conduct any other proceeding arising out of or relating to the prosecution, including any appeal.

PART VIII.—PROTECTING PEOPLE WHO ASSIST THE COMMISSION.

103. DIRECTIONS TO PROTECT WITNESSES DURING COMMISSION HEARINGS.

Where the Commission considers that a witness may be intimidated, distressed or fear for the witnesses's safety or that of another person at a hearing, the Commission may direct that one or more of the following special measures be used at the hearing:

the use of a screen or other arrangement to prevent the witness from seeing other persons in the hearing room;

the presence of a support person chosen by the witness to be seated with the witness when he or she is giving evidence;

planned seating arrangements for people who have an interest in the hearing, including the level at which they are seated and the people in the line of vision of the witness;

the relocation of the hearing or any part of the hearing to other premises;

the exclusion of persons from the hearing room while the witness is giving evidence;

permitting the evidence to be given from a place other than the hearing room by means of closed—circuit television or other facilities that enable communication between that place and the hearing room.

104. PROTECTION OF WITNESSES.

(1) In this section, "good faith" means that a person is acting on an honest belief held on reasonable grounds that the information was true at the time the information was given to the Commission.

(2) A person is not liable to any civil or criminal action, including disciplinary proceedings, for giving information in good faith to the Commission.

(3) Subsection (2) applies to a person despite the person being subject to a confidentiality provision or a duty of confidentiality, or any other prohibition or restriction on disclosure under any other law of Papua New Guinea.

105. COMPENSATION.

(1) This section applies if the National Court is satisfied, on the application of a person, that another person has retaliated or threatened to retaliate, or is retaliating or threatening to retaliate, against the applicant.

(2) The Court may make an order requiring the person against whom an application is made to compensate the applicant for any loss, damage or injury suffered as a result of the retaliation or threat.

106. REINSTATEMENT ETC.

(1) This section applies where the National Court is satisfied, on the application of a person that –

(a) another person has retaliated, or is retaliating, against the applicant; and

(b) the retaliation wholly or partly consists, or consisted, of that other person –

(i) terminating, or purporting to terminate, the applicant's employment; or

(ii) causing other occupational detriment to the applicant.

(2) The Court may make an order that the applicant be reinstated to their position or a position at a comparable level, or that other action be taken to address the other occupational detriment suffered by the applicant.

107. INJUNCTIONS AND OTHER ORDERS.

(1) This section applies where the National Court is satisfied, on the application of a person, that another person has retaliated or threatened to retaliate, or is retaliating or threatening to retaliate, against the applicant.

(2) The Court may make the following orders:

(a) an order granting an injunction requiring the person to do anything necessary to prevent or cease the retaliation;

(b) any other order the Court considers appropriate.

(3) The Court may make any other orders that the Court considers appropriate against any other person who –

(a) aids, abets, counsels, lead or procures the conduct against the applicant; or

(b) induces the conduct against the applicant, whether through threats or promises or otherwise; or

(c) knowingly is a party to the conduct against the applicant; or

(d) conspires with others to effect the conduct against the applicant.

108. OFFENCE OF RETALIATION.

A person commits an offence if the person retaliates, or threatens to retaliate, against another person.

Penalty: A fine not exceeding K10,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

For the purpose of Subsection (1), a threat may be –

(a) expressed or implied; or

(17) conditional or unconditional.

In a prosecution for an offence under Subsection (1), it is not necessary to prove that the person who was threatened actually feared that the threat would be carried out.

109. PHYSICAL PROTECTION OF PERSONS ASSISTING THE COMMISSION.

(1) Where it appears to the Commission that, because a person is assisting the Commission, the safety of the person or any other person may be prejudiced or the person or any other person may be subject to intimidation or harassment, the Commission may make necessary arrangements –

(a) to protect the safety of the person; or

(b) to protect the person from intimidation or harassment.

(2) Where it appears to the Commission that, because of the performance by a Commission officer or a consultant of his or her functions or the exercise of his or her powers, the safety of the Commission officer, the consultant or any other person may be prejudiced, or the officer, consultant or any other person may be subject to intimidation or harassment, the Commission may make necessary arrangements –

(a) to protect the safety of the Commission officer, the consultant or other person; or

(b) to protect the Commission officer, the consultant or other person from intimidation or harassment.

(3) The Commissioner may request the Commissioner of Police or another public body or public official –

(a) to provide any protection referred to in Subsection (1) or (2); or

(b) to provide personnel or facilities or both to assist in providing that protection; or

(c) to otherwise assist in the provision of that protection.

110. PREVENTING ETC., PERSON FROM ASSISTING THE COMMISSION.

A person commits an offence if the person prevents a person from assisting the Commission.

Penalty: A fine not exceeding K10,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

PART IX.—REPORTING AND FINANCES.

III. ANNUAL REPORT.

The annual report of the Commission required under Section 220H of the Constitution must include the following:

118. Engagement of Staff of the Service—continued

(2) If a staff member appointed under this section was, immediately before his or her appointment, an officer of the National Public Service, his or her service to the Commission is taken to be service in the National Public Service for the purpose of determining his or her rights in respect of –

- (a) absence or leave on the ground of illness; and
- (b) furlough or pay in lieu of furlough including pay to dependants or personal representatives on the death of the officer.

119. REGULATIONS FOR THE STAFF SERVICE.

The Regulations may –

- (a) make provisions in relation to the Service of the Commission; and
- (b) prescribe the terms and conditions of employment of staff; and
- (c) make provision for the establishment of a superannuation scheme to provide benefits for staff of the Commission on retirement, resignation, retrenchment or death.

120. OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT PROHIBITED.

A member of the staff of the Service shall not directly or indirectly engage in any paid employment outside the duties of his or her office or position in the Service.

121. ENGAGEMENT OF CONSULTANTS.

The Commission may engage a person with suitable qualifications and experience as a consultant to the Commission.

(2) The Commission may engage a consultant under agreement in writing on such terms and conditions as specified in the agreement.

(3) The Commission may engage non-citizens as consultants.

122. SECONDMENTS.

(1) The Commission may be assisted in the performance of its functions by members of another State Service seconded to the Service.

(2) The Commission may allow a staff of the Service to be engaged on secondment to a State Service to assist the State Service in the performance of the State Service's functions.

123. ENGAGEMENT OF NON-CITIZENS.

(1) The Commission may engage non-citizens as staff of the Service, including as Commission investigators and Commission prosecutors, in accordance with law and on such terms and conditions as the Commission determines.

(2) The Commission is not subject to the Public Employment (Non-Citizens) Act 1978 but is subject to the Employment of Non-Citizens Act 2008.

124. TEMPORARY AND CASUAL EMPLOYEES.

(1) The Commission may appoint such temporary and casual employees as the Commission thinks necessary for the purpose of this Law.

(2) Employees appointed under Subsection (1) shall be employed on such terms and conditions as the Commission determines.

125. CODE OF CONDUCT.

(1) The Commission must determine a Code of Conduct for all Commission officers.

(2) The Commission must publish the Code of Conduct in the National Gazette and ensure that all

Commission officers are aware of the Code.

126. SERVICE GUIDELINES.

(1) The Commission may make guidelines, not inconsistent with this Law, for any matter that is necessary or desirable for the efficient management and control of the Service.

(2) The Service Guidelines must be published in the National Gazette by the Commission.

127. DUTY TO REPORT CORRUPT CONDUCT.

(1) Members of the Commission must immediately report any suspected corrupt conduct of a Commission officer to the Commissioner in accordance with the Code of Conduct.

(2) A Commission officer other than a member of the Commission must, as soon as practicable, report any suspected corrupt conduct by –

- (a) the Commissioner to the Appointments Committee; and
- (b) a Deputy Commissioner to the Commissioner; and
- (c) any other Commission officer to the Commissioner.

128. CONSULTATION WITH THE PUBLIC SERVICES COMMISSION.

The Commission must consult with the Public Services Commission about –

- (a) the Code of Conduct; and
- (b) the Service Guidelines; and
- (c) the terms and conditions of engagement of staff of the Service.

129. DELEGATION.

(1) The Commission may delegate to a Commission officer any or all of its functions and powers other than this power of delegation.

(2) A delegation –

- (a) must be made by instrument in writing; and
- (b) may be absolute or conditional; and
- (c) does not derogate from the power of the delegator to act in a matter; and (60 is revocable at will; and

(e) may be made to a Commission officer or a class of Commission officers.

130. COMMISSION INVESTIGATORS.

(1) Where the Commission is satisfied that a person has suitable qualifications or experience, the Commission may in writing authorise the person to be a Commission investigator.

(2) Section 76(a) of the Firearms Act 1978 applies to a Commission investigator when performing functions or exercising powers as a Commission investigator as if he or she were a person referred to in that section.

131. IDENTIFICATION CARDS FOR COMMISSION INVESTIGATORS.

(1) The Commission must issue an identity card to a commission investigator showing a recent photograph of the investigator, his or her name and the fact that he or she is a Commission investigator.

(2) A Commission investigator must carry his or her identity card at all times when performing functions or exercising powers as a Commission investigator.

132. COMMISSION PROSECUTORS.

(1) Where the Commission is satisfied that a legal practitioner has suitable qualifications or experience, the Commission may in writing authorise the legal practitioner to be a Commission prosecutor.

(2) This Organic Law does not affect the provisions of the Criminal Code Act 1974 that require that certain powers and functions must only be exercised by State Prosecutors.
